PHIL NEAL

WE have got to be a little disappointed to have only three points on the table from our first three games of the season—especially in view of having also had two players sent off in successive games.

Mark Winstanley and Julian Darby are two of our younger element and I rather think that their dismissals were probably down to naivety more than anything else. I've made my feelings known about both cases but, having said all that, the players know the rules and must accept the consequences.

Clearly the supporters will have been as disappointed as I was with the defeat at Huddersfield on Saturday, particularly since we had beaten them twice in a matter of days in the Rumbelows Cup tie.

They were reasonable performances and progressing through to the next round of the competition gave us a great deal of pleasure. But League games are our bread and butter and Saturday's result means we've lost some of the momentum we had with our encouraging start to the season.

It means we have got to show our grit and determination to bounce back today and claim three more points to add to the win we had at Shrewsbury.

I regard Crewe as a good footballing side, so the supporters can look forward to the prospect of watching an entertaining encounter between two attractive teams—provided it stays at 11-a-side.

An update of today's opposition

THIS afternoon we extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Crewe Alexandra. The Railwaymen are currently enjoying only their second season of third division football since the late 1960's after making a great deal of progress under their shrewd manager Dario Gradi. At the helm at Gresty Road since 1983, Gradi has transformed the club from perennial strugglers to one full of zest and ambition. Not only have Crewe established themselves in the higher grade, finishing a respectable 12th last season, but they have also earned plaudits for the quality of their football, not least by their display in the goalless draw at Burnden last March. The club's youth policy is the envy of many with a whole host of talented players emerging through the ranks.

It's very much a case of 'as you were' as the club with no significant changes to the playing staff over the summer. After an opening day 1-1 home draw with Fulham, Crewe lost 2-3 at Southend before a 1-2 home defeat at the hands of Grimsby last Saturday. Progress was made in the Rumbelows Cup, on away goals, after a 2-2 aggregate scoreline with Grimsby Town.

Goalkeeper Dean Greygoose is now in his fourth season at Gresty Road, completing his century of League appearances for the club in the goalless draw at Burnden last March. The 25 year-old, a former England Youth international, played previously for Cambridge, Orient and Crystal Palace.

18 year old Wrexham born defender Rob Jones came up through the club's trainee ranks to make his first-team debut three seasons ago and has already clocked up nearly 40 League appearances. 38 year old Kenny Swain made his League bow

FOOTBALL LEAGUE PUBLISH FAMILY FACILITIES DIRECTORY

The Football League have published their directory of family facilities available at League grounds. The 32-page booklet, which has been compiled by the League's Community Affairs Department at Lytham St. Annes, contains a guide to the facilities available to families and junior supporters visiting grounds.

The booklet contains information on family and junior enclosures, pre-match activities and reciprocal visits and details of special ticket rates which are available.

Family co-ordinators from clubs in all four divisions of the Barclays League met at Villa Park over the summer, in a seminar arranged by the Football League, where ideas were exchanged and new developments discussed.

Eagle-eyed followers of the professional game will have noticed that this season, for the first time, all players now carry the Football League logo on the sleeves of their shirts. The new Regulation was introduced to develop greater awareness of the league logo and to help generate increased income through licensing deals.

Since 1988, when the re-designed logo was first introduced, the League's Commercial and Marketing Department has undertaken an intensive licensing programme which currently generates income of around £350,000 a year, a figure that is expected to rise to £500,000 in the next 12 months.

ORIGINAL LEAGUE CUP COMES OUT OF RETIREMENT

In a welcome return to tradition, League Cup sponsors Rumbelows have confirmed that the winners of this year's competition will be presented with the original League Cup trophy, first awarded in the Cup's inaugural season in 1961.

The distinctive three handled silver trophy was presented to the League in 1960 by its then President, the late Sir Joe Richards, and first awarded to Aston Villa, winners over two legs against Rotherham United, in the first ever final. Sir Joe Richards had supported the League Secretary Alan Hardaker in his introduction of the new competition.

Rumbelows have signed a four-year £5 million deal for sponsorship of the Football League Cup, which last year enjoyed a fourth successive rise in spectator levels, with over 1.8 million people attending games throughout the competition.

Reports and events from years past

15th SEPTEMBER

1888—For the Wanderers second Football League game Burnley were the visitors to Pikes Lane. The game kicked off late due to the late arrival of Burnley but within 25 minutes goals from James Brogan, Kenny Davenport and Tom Cooper had put the Wanderers in command. Unfortunately for the second week in succession they again collapsed and went down 4-3.

1900—Bolton found themselves at the bottom of the First Division and the only team without a point after a 3-1 defeat at Notts County. Wanderers goal came from the penalty spot, breaking the run that had seen them miss the last eleven, Tom McAteer shooting home a retaken effort.

1917—Ex Atherton 'keeper Bill Ellison became the club's third custodian in as many games but he couldn't prevent Liverpool hitting three without reply in a Lancashire section war game at Burnden.

1920—Aston Villa were the victims of Bolton's strike force who won 5-0 at Burnden with a couple of goals each for Joe Smith and Frank Roberts and one for Tom Buchan.

1928—Sunderland condemned Bolton to the bottom of the First Division with just one point from the opening six games after a 4-0 win at Roker Park. Fred Kean a £5,600 buy from Sheffield Wednesday made his Bolton debut.

1934—Two Jack Milsom goals gave Bolton a 2-0 win at Notts County and their sixth straight win since the start of the season which had seen Milsom get onto the scoresheet in every game.

1948—Bolton gained revenge against Huddersfield when two Willie Moir goals earned the points at Leeds Road. Nine days earlier Town had won 2-1 at Burnden.

1956—Goals from Nat Lofthouse and Ray Parry sent Cardiff City to defeat at Burnden. It was Bolton's second home success in three days and Nat's 11th goal in 8 games.

1973—Crystal Palace went down 2-0 at Burnden when goals from John Byrom and Stuart Lee were decisive.

1979—After only one win in the opening five games the Wanderers couldn't reverse the trend when they went down 3-1 at Coventry City. Willie Morgan was the Bolton goalscorer whilst Willie Wallace struck twice and Barry Powell once for Coventry.

1981—Bolton went out of the League Cup on a 5-4 aggregate to Oldham Athletic. Holding a 2-1 advantage from the first leg Oldham hit back at Boundary Park and took the tie 4-2 after extra time. Chris Thompson and Neil Berry scored for Bolton.

IN CONVERSATION

LYNNE FELGATE

Lynne admits to being a life-long Wanderers fan and she is Bolton born and bred. She said proudly, "As a young girl I used to watch Bolton with my dad and brother; then later I watched games with my girlfriends."

It was in December 1977 that she first met David. She recalls "He was mainly an 'A' team player then and had only played a couple of times in the Reserves." Lynne added that the recognised first team 'keepers were 'Seamus' McDonough and Terry Poole.

Budding friendship eventually led to marriage and Dave went out on loan to Rochdale presumably to gain League experience but whilst he was at Spotland, boss Stan Anderson brought Dennis Peacock to Burnden and this prompted a transfer request which led to a move to Lincoln City. Lynne said, "We had only been married six weeks and Dave was living in Lincoln and me in Bolton before a house was purchased." The Felgates spent five years at Sindil Bank before a move—this time to Grimsby—and uprooting again. An eventual revived Bolton interest led to a move back to Lynne's native town and Dave's first Club.

LYNNE FELGATE

A HIT WITH THE MISSES

Over the years football has become increasingly popular with female enthusiasts proven by women's teams competing at national level, female club physio's and commercial managers. "In Conversation" voices their opinion—but only one at a time! !

Wanderers success in the then Sherpa Van Trophy led to a Wembley Final in 1986 against Bristol City. "I regard this as being David's biggest disappointment when he was ruled ineligible to play."

But for Lynne there have been many highlights including the 1988 promotion season followed by a successful re-appearance at Wembley in the same Sherpa Van competition in 1989 against Torquay.

Lynne revealed her husband's habits surrounding games. She wittingly said, "On the night before a game he's usually O.K. until about 8 o'clock then he goes quiet. I don't know whether this is due to him paying the shopping bill or the match the following day."

She also thinks there is a hint of superstition when she said, "He always likes to prepare and iron his own clothes for the match and sometimes after a win he will wear the same clothes the following week."

How does David react to winning and losing games? "When we have won, he is in a great mood", she said, "but when we lose no one in the house knows whether to speak to him or not and his mood can last all weekend."

Mrs Felgate has "got a reasonable knowledge of the game" but admits to not fully understanding the offside rule. "Sometimes when I think a player is offside, the referee doesn't give it" she said. Sat in the Stands she feels proud when her husband has an outstanding game. "I felt proud when he saved those penalties in the opening games but I also tell him when I think he's made mistakes" she confirmed.

Their two children Lisa and Jordan accompany mum to every game. Jordan's favourite player is David Reeves, whilst Lisa likes watching her dad and enjoys the glasses of coke afterwards.

DAVE FELGATE

We caught up with Welsh International goalkeeper David Felgate and asked him about his short spell on loan at Crewe Alexandra, today's visitors. "I had just had my first spell of League football on loan to Rochdale when Crewe manager Tony Waddington asked me to join them on loan. Warwick Rimmer was coach there at that time and a certain Bruce Grobaler was at the club but couldn't play for them until he received a work permit."

Dave enjoyed his spell at Gresty Road playing 15 games in all for the Cheshire club before returning to Burnden Park, he later joined Lincoln, one of the clubs he had faced playing for Crewe at Sincil Bank in a 4-0 defeat. Dave recalled that night "It was fog-bound really and nobody thought the game would be played but it was and within 15 minutes we were 3-0 with the now Derby County striker Mick Harford causing us all sorts of problems, it could really have ended six or seven in their favour but I must have impressed because Lincoln moved in shortly after."

Since Dave re-joined the Wanderers for his third spell with the club he lists the promotion to the Third Division and the Sherpa Van Trophy win at Wembley as the highlights, "Yes, securing promotion in my native North Wales was special with that win at Wrexham, but playing at Wembley after missing out for the club in 1986 was the highlight. The atmosphere was superb and you know it might never happen again, I just didn't want to leave the pitch," he recalled and nobody will forget how he stayed on to shake the hands of hundreds of Bolton fans well after the game.

Never happier than with his lovely wife Lynn and children Lisa and Jordan, David confirmed the determination to make up for last season's narrow failure in the promotion stakes. "Yes we've been together for another 12 months now and we're that much wiser, I fancy our chances along with Stoke and Tranmere."

He sets himself personal targets with aiming to keep at least 20 clean sheets a season but when asked about playing for his native Wales again he replied that he "didn't really think about it", he just wanted to perform to the best of his ability, something that the Wanderers faithful have always come to expect from the popular keeper.

The Bolton supporters have always been No.1 with Dave, as was highlighted in the first away game at Shrewsbury. "Brilliant, that's the only word for them. They travel in their thousands and get right behind you, they're entitled to have a go if things are not going right but they will always back a tryer." David and Kevin

Rose work hard together in training with a competitive edge obviously involved with a first team place at stake with Dave predicting a fine future for new YTS goalkeeper Clarke who impressed when involved in pre season games. "Yes he has lots of promise and has now got to keep his dedication to football to progress further."

Neil Fisher caused problems for the Barnsley defence in the opening exchanges. His run to the by-line was followed by a pin point cross to Mike Jeffrey who saw his shot saved by Phil Whitehead. Fisher himself then got past three defenders only to shoot over the bar from 16 yards out.

Substitute Barry Smith, who had replaced the injured Gary Henshaw, almost put the Wanderers in front but was denied a debut goal by a fingertip save from Whitehead.

winning goal in the 36th minute, Colin Hoyle hitting home a volley after Bolton had been hesitant to clear a right wing cross.

Four minutes into the second half the visitors almost increased their lead but Kevin Rose got down quickly to smother a close range attempt from Darren Connelly.

After this incident it was Bolton who took control of the game with Paul Comstive prominent in midfield. In the 64th minute Mike Jeffrey was denied an equaliser when Whitehead saved his 20 yard blast at the second attempt and, three minutes later, the 'keeper again came to his sides rescue with a spectacular stop from a Barry Smith header.

Seven minutes from time the Barnsley goal confirmed its charmed life when an intended back pass from David McNicholas flew over his 'keepers head and inches past the post.

REVIEWING 1987...

Wanderers statistician Simon Marland has compiled another edition of 'Bolton Wanderers—A Complete Record' covering all the games and events of the club's progress during the 1989-90 season.

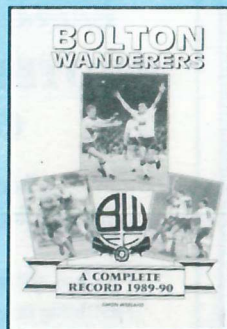

On a month-by-month, match-by-match basis, Simon summarises an exciting and eventful campaign from the pre-season friendly games and Isle of Man tournament in July 1989 right through until the play-off defeat at the hands of Notts County last May.

Backed by an impressive array of photographs and full statistical details of the first and reserve teams' appearances and scorers, the booklet is a must for all Wanderers' fans and makes an invaluable update to the club history, written by the same author, which has been so universally and deservedly popular.

A lighthearted look at football

"Our League meetings were very close with a see-saw affair"

TWO local derbys in four days and what tricky games they look, beginning with Crewe this afternoon and then Preston North End on Tuesday night. Managed to beat 'The Alex' in the Leyland DAF Cup last season our League meetings were very close with a see-saw affair at Gresty Road when

The Railwaymen David Reeves had a fine season on their return to the Third Division last year with Dario Gradi's side looking at one stage as if they were going to make the end of season's play-offs. That wasn't to be but certainly this season no one will be underestimating them especially on their own tight Gresty Road pitch. I know one thing, local neighbours Stoke won't be looking forward to meeting them, with Crewe ready to put one over their big city rivals.

Although we managed to beat who have commented on Dave Felgate's colour of goalkeeper jersey this season and to be honest, they think the new yellow ones suit him more with his short permed hair than the green ones he normally wears. Rumours that David wanted a pink designed jersey are completely unfounded although it could have been a good idea if opposing forwards had got the wrong idea and stayed well away from him during the match.

Moving on to the topic of the Wanderers' new strips and what a success they have been especially the new designed away shirt which has captured the imagination of the Bolton fans and looks very trendy when worn with a pair of 501's.

Quite a number of letters have arrived in from the fairer sex lieve he hasn't signed a deal with C.B.S. just yet but hearsay has it that he could be supporting Deacon Blue on their world tour next summer, although at a recent agents night Phil was too stage struck to perform and it could be advisable to wait and see whether the 'Paul Young' soundalike recovers his confidence on stage.

Latest news to arrive from the dressing rooms is that David Reeves and Tony Philliskirk have been approached to perform on the next series of ITV Stars In Their Eyes—I wonder who they will appear as!

Moving on to skipper Phil Brown and we have had a number of enquiries about a forthcoming tour he might undertake after his singing success on the kick-off programme last season. We be-

A look back at the recent past

BY

SIMON MARLAND

TODAY sees the Wanderers facing Crewe for the fifth time in the Football League and without a win to their credit.

This is in stark contrast to the cup record between the clubs which sees Bolton having won both FA Cup games and three of the four Freight Rover Trophy games, the other being drawn.

Crewe were the visitors for Bolton's first ever Fourth Division game in August 1987, Gary Henshaw taking only three minutes to open the scoring but David Platt, now of Aston Villa, hit Crewe's equaliser in the second half.

Wanderers made their first League visit to Gresty Road in February 1988 and again were quick off the mark when Trevor Trevor Morgan scores for the Wanderers on their first League visit to Crewe in February 1988.

Neil Morton scored his first goal for Crewe to equalise in the 19th minute and the home side's winner came on the stroke of half time in a controversial manner.

Full back Wayne Goodison sent a long cross into the Wanderers penalty area and 'keeper Dave Felgate appeared to be impeded by Chris Cutler as the ball ran into an empty net.

It was at Third Division level that the clubs next faced each other when, in October 1989, a 2-2 draw resulted at Gresty Road. First half goals from Paul Clayton and Aaron Callaghan put Crewe into the driving seat but two goals from David Reeves earned Bolton a point.

Bolton began their recovery from a two goal deficit for the second time in a week, having defeated Wigan 3-2 the previous Saturday, when Reeves scored from close range two minutes into the second half. Three minutes from time Crewe keeper Paul Edwards went up under pressure from Reeves, dropped the ball and could only appeal to the referee as the striker knocked home the equaliser.

Crewe's last visit to Burnden was in March of this year when a scoreless draw put the brakes on Bolton's promotion hopes. Crewe had much the better of the first period with Dave Felgate finding himself the busier of the 'keepers with some vital saves.

Bolton gradually turned things around in the second half and were denied an injury time matchwinner by an outstanding fingertip save from Crewe 'keeper Dean Greygoose who denied Stuart Storer.

Our overall League record against Crewe is as follows:-

	PL	W	D	L	F	A
Home	2	0	2	0	1	1
Away	2	0	1	1	3	4
Total	4	0	3	1	4	5

PLAYED FOR BOTH CLUBS

Warwick Rimmer signed for Bolton as an amateur when 15 years old and went on to win England Youth honours at both amateur and professional level.

He made his debut in October 1960, in Wanderers first ever Football League Cup tie at Hull City and went on to play for the club in 528 first class games.

In 1973 he captained the team that won the Third Division Championship and in the same year was awarded a testimonial. Second Division champions Burnley were the opposition when a crowd of 13,314 saw the Wanderers win 3-1.

In March 1975 the half back joined Crewe

WARWICK RIMMER

Alexandra and made a further 128 League appearances for them, also holding the position of coach and manager for a spell.

He is currently with Tranmere Rovers, the club his father played for, as youth coach.

1922/23 SEASON

The Wanderers made a poor start to what was to become one of the most famous seasons ever, not just in the history of the Club but to football in general.

Bolton opened the season with a visit to Preston where they went down 3-1. Charles Flood, a forward signed from Hull City, scored the Wanderers goal only three minutes into his debut.

Burnden Park saw little change apart from a practice pitch behind the old stand but only one win, by 3-1 against Oldham, saw the Wanderers languishing in 20th spot. Home form began to improve and Burnden was awarded the English League game against the Irish League. David Jack scored twice for the English League and George Eccles was the victors trainer for the game.

During October Frank Roberts was suspended indefinitely by the Club for taking the management of a licensed premises which was against club policy. The search for a new centre forward was on when Roberts signed for Manchester City, the striker scoring from the penalty spot a month later in City's 2-0 win. For the return with City a week later the Wanderers had signed John Smith, a centre forward from Glasgow Rangers, he immediately began to repay some of his transfer fee with an 89th minute winner.

The year ended with the Wanderers in a much healthier 10th position and they opened 1923 with a 4-2 home win over Nottingham Forest in which Joe Smith scored all four goals.

The first away win in the FA Cup since 1905 was recorded by the Wanderers with a 2-0 scoreline at Norwich and Leeds were accounted for by 3-1 at Burnden in the second round.

In between these games League points were being accumulated with a 2-1 home win over Burnley and a 1-0 win at Spurs where on the way to the game the team had a passing glance of Wembley under construction.

The Wanderers qualified for the quarter finals of the FA Cup with a 1-0 replay win over Huddersfield Town at Burnden. Unfortunately Walter Rowley was sent off in the original game and received a six week suspension.

Joe Smith missed his first game of the season in a 3-0 defeat at League leaders Liverpool but returned for the FA Cup tie at Charlton which was won thanks to a goal from David Jack.

Jack was again to be the Wanderers hero a fortnight later when his 46th minute goal won Bolton an FA Cup final appearance by defeating Sheffield United at Old Trafford.

The crowd of 72,000 was a record at the time even though tickets had been charged excessively.

All eyes were focussed on the first Wembley Cup Final and only 5 further League points were won in 9 games.

Thirty players had been relied upon to carry the Wanderers through their League programme with only Dick Pym ever present.

On April 28th 1923 Bolton took to the field with the then Second Division West Ham United for what became to be known as the White Horse Final. The greatest ever crowd at an FA Cup final estimated at 150,000, with hoards pushed back behind the touch line by a white horse name Billy. When the game eventually got started goals from David Jack and John Smith brought the FA Cup back to Bolton for the first time.

Clubs were falling over themselves in an eagerness to entertain the cup winners. A week later the Wanderers visited Chorley, where the home side displayed the Lancashire Combination Championship alongside the FA Cup, the Wanderers winning 8-0.

A tour to Switzerland was undertaken where 7 games were won and 1 drawn but despite all the hallybaloo there was the end of an era at Burnden. Tom Buchan who had served the club throughout the First World War was given a free transfer for services rendered and he joined Tranmere where he teamed up with another old Bolton Wanderer, Harold Hilton.

HELPING THE GAME

A fine new stand - one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettlers. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.
